Four Evils.
Whoever habitually uses any unwholesome preparations as an "appetizer" will be likely to suffer from four evils, viz: an overplum of food in the stomach, impaired ability to digest it, the pangs of dyspepsia, and a doctor's bill. DR. WALKER'S VEGETABLE VITAMIN BROTHERS, the great Tonic and Restorative of the age, without overstimulating the palate or irritating the stomach, imparts a healthy appetite, promotes digestion, regulates the liver and bowels, purifies the blood, and thus, instead of entailing four evils, confers four inestimable benefits.

Editor BULLETIN—S. In yesterday's issue it was asserted, as a scrap of local news, that all the prisoners who had been removed from the county jail on account of small-pox breaking out among the inmates, are confined in the calaboose. As a matter of fact, no prisoner, sick or well, has ever been removed from the county jail to the calaboose during my connection with it.

That Narrow Gauge Ball.
Some time ago, it was suggested through the columns of THE BULLETIN, that a grand Narrow Gauge railroad ball be given in this city at the St. Charles Hotel, on the completion of the Cairo & St. Louis railroad. The Gazette then spoke of the matter, saying that "notwithstanding the depleted condition of our city treasury, it believed it would be a wise public expenditure to provide for the entertainment of the hundreds of people who would visit Cairo on the completion of the Cairo & St. Louis railroad. As we shall aim and expect to build up business relations with them, it will be a part of wisdom to give them a cordial welcome, and a friendly, hospitable entertainment." The Murphyshoro Era and Jonesboro Gazette join heartily in with the Cairo papers, and express their belief that a demonstration of this kind would do much to bring about the coveted business relations, as well as create a more friendly feeling among the entire populace who dwell along the line of the road. In speaking of the proposed ball, the Murphyshoro Era says: "That's right, brother Harrell. Murphyshoro will turn out a large delegation to visit the metropolis of Egypt on the completion of the C. and St. L. railroad. To attend a banquet given by the Cairo people would be splendid. Say at the St. Charles, supper and dance. We know that there are several of our young ladies who would delight in tangling with those jaybird limbs of Mr. Oberly in a quadrille; and others, with eagerness, would whirl in a waltz with our obese friend, Judge Bross, while we will pay our undivided attention to the supper. It would be grand. Let's have it." And the Jonesboro Gazette, no less jubilant over the prospect of having a chance to come to Cairo on an occasion of this kind, echoes the words of its friend, The Era, and says: "We will all go down and have a jolly time."

CIRCUIT COURT.
Thursday, January 14th, 1875.

—In suit of Jno. Barton vs. F. M. Delany tried before the court yesterday, the court this morning rendered judgment in favor of the plaintiff.

—In suit of Jacob G. Lynch vs. Alexander County, the remainder of the evidence was heard, the case argued by counsel at considerable length, when the court announced that the decision would be reserved for a future day.

—In the two suits of the City of Cairo vs. John Heffly, for breach of ordinance, a jury was impaneled when the attorneys by agreement waived the intervention of the jury, and submitted these cases for trial by the court. Judgment was rendered in favor of the defendant.

—The suit of Mary J. Bissell vs. Sarah J. Brown, involving the title to some lands in Alexander county, was in part heard by the court, when the time for adjournment having arrived, the case was continued until to-morrow morning.

Friday, January 15, 1875.

—In the suit of Jacob G. Lynch vs. Alexander county, brought to recover fees under the special laws of 1853, the court rendered judgment in favor of the defendant.

—John Curran, tried on the charge of buying stolen property, was acquitted by the jury.

—Jacob Bradley, indicted for taking corn, between two days, from a neighboring field, had twelve of his peers impaneled, before whom he was established his innocence. The evidence promised to be derogatory to Bradley's good name, but the statute saved him.

—In the case of Wickwire vs. Cairo City Gas Company, the motion for a new trial was argued, but the decision is reserved for the present.

Saturday, January 16, 1875.

—The case of the People vs. Jacob Bradley, on a charge of stealing Jake Walder's hogs, occupied nearly the entire day. To the great joy of Bradley and his friends, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Brother Bradley has passed through the furnace, and escaped, minus his beard.

—In the case of Rennie vs. English, the court gave judgment in favor of the defendant.

General Items.

—"The Ambitious Hen," is a pleasant little story by a talented lady of this city.

—Remember Dr. R. S. Brigham's lecture on "Evolution," to-morrow night. It will be an able effort.

—Mr. E. D. Farnsworth, Past Grand Sire of the Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, will arrive in this city to-day, and it is expected will deliver an address to the Odd-Fellows of this city during his stay.

—The masquerade to be given by the Delta City Cornet band promises to be a large affair. Costumes can be had at Phil. Saup's, corner of Eighth and Washington avenue.
1-16-2f.

—Bouton, of the Jonesboro Gazette, thinks it a nice thing to be a newspaper man, and says: "The county commissioners of Alexander county may have the Bulletin and Gazette each $200 for publication, and the Gazette to be a Cairo newspaper man."

—On Friday morning last the thermometer stood 12 below 0 on the Mount in the Navy Yard at Mount City, at 7 a. m. This is the first time it has gone so low at this point since the memorable cold period about the 1st of January, 1864. At Chicago it was 25 below, at Cheyenne 38, and in the Mountains the bottom fell out.

—Track-laying on the Cairo and St. Louis railroad is progressing steadily. The Jonesboro Gazette says: "Track on the Cairo and St. Louis railroad is laid to J. Cruise's, two and a half miles south of town. On the north, the track was laid to John S. Rendleman's on Friday morning, seven miles from town. Mr. Wood's bridge builders went to Cairo last Thursday to build a coal dump."

—Everybody who would spend a very pleasant evening, should not forget that, on next Wednesday night, the Liberal Religionists will give another of those very enjoyable soirees at their hall on Washington avenue. During the winter, at intervals of two weeks, this organization has contributed much pleasure to the old as well as young people of the city by these soirees, and they will continue to do so until the warm weather sets in, to attend which the public generally is invited.

—The Jonesboro Freeman, is speaking of Mr. Wm. Mulkey, of this city, as a candidate for the office of county attorney of Alexander county, says: "P. H. Pope, county attorney for Alexander county, being about to resign that office, the name of Wm. Mulkey of Cairo, has been suggested as a suitable person to step into Mr. Pope's shoes. Wm. Mulkey is a son of Judge John H. Mulkey, and possesses much of his father's legal lore, and would fill the office for which he is being pressed with great ability."

—An agreement was made to-day between Mr. Linegar, Jacob Bradley's attorney, and Mr. Webb, prosecuting attorney, that if Bradley is acquitted of the charge of stealing Jacob Walter's sow and pigs, the Rev. Jacob Webb would preach a sermon to which the jurors in the case will be especially invited, upon which occasion a hymn by Mr. Webb will be sung. The hymn begins thus:

Hark! from the common, a doleful sound—
Allowing attend the cry:
Ye living hogs, come view the ground,
Where you must shortly lie.
—We learn from Jailer McCarthy, that there has been no prisoners from the county jail confined in the lock-up, on account of small-pox breaking out in that jail. He says that the mayor has strictly forbidden him to receive any county prisoners, and that the item published in THE BULLETIN yesterday morning was a d—d lie, and we guess it was. But we were told that story by an officer, and published it, thinking it would be an item of news to our readers, but instead of enriching ourselves in trying to enlighten the public in city affairs, we came very near getting a "head put on us."

—A lively time was created in Cairo by the breaking out of three cases of small-pox in the County Jail on Sunday. All criminal trials are suspended for the present, and court is being held in a building across the street from the Court House—Pulaski Patriot.

The Patriot man is mistaken. There has been only four cases of small-pox in this city during the winter, one of which originated in the county jail, and the other three were brought by steamboats, and put off at this point for treatment. And when he says that court is being held in a building across the street from the court house, he is wrong again. The Arab engine house has been neatly fitted up, and is now doing service as a court room, but it is said that that place is afflicted with a pest equally as bad as the small-pox.

—In reply to the item published in THE BULLETIN a few days ago, in which it was suggested that the Odd Fellows should have a grand excursion and picnic to take place somewhere on the line of the Cairo & St. Louis railroad, as soon as the weather would permit, the Jonesboro Gazette says: "We would suggest to the fraternity at Cairo that the Fair Grounds in this town would be a good place to hold the celebration, provided that it is held outside of Cairo; and, also, that the Cairo & St. Louis railroad be completed. We trust that the brethren in this county will consider the question, and resolve to have a grand reunion at some point in Southern Illinois. We have received a letter from Past G. M. F. Bross, in which it is suggested to hold the celebration at some point in Alexander, or this county."
